

HOW TO SUBMIT A REVIEW:

Have you read or watched something that helped you think more critically about the world's religions or expanded your appreciation of interfaith dialogue or spirituality? Interfaith Cincinnati would love to hear about it! We welcome community reviews of books, journal articles, and films to be included in our website.

You can submit a review by emailing us at interfaithcincy@gmail.com. When you write us, the subject line of your email should clearly state, “[BOOK/ARTICLE/FILM] REVIEW FOR WEBSITE.” Each review should include the following:

- (1) The full title of the book, article, or film you wish to review;
- (2) Author(s) of print material or producer and director of film content;
- (3) Link to the publisher's or film's webpage for the specific item reviewed;
- (4) An abstract-length summary of the content (150-250 words), which includes a brief assessment of the work and recommendation for who would find the content most useful (e.g. a college student, faith leader, spiritual seeker, etc.); and
- (5) A Chicago-style citation for each item you review.

If you have any questions about submitting a review you may also write us at the same email above.

All submissions will be read and responded to in the order they are received.
